Fish & Richardson 1L Diversity Fellowship Program

Fish & Richardson is pleased to announce its 1L Diversity Fellowship Program for 2012. The program, which offers fellowships to diverse first year law students, is a key component of their ongoing firm initiative to recruit, retain, and advance attorneys who will contribute to the diversity of their practice and of the legal profession. Their 1L Diversity Fellowship Program is comprised of three components: mentoring, a $5,000 scholarship, and a paid summer associate position in the domestic office of the student's choice. Applications for the 2012 Fellowship will be accepted from December 1, 2011 through January 13, 2012. For more information about the Fellowship or to print out an application and checklist of required support materials, visit <http://www.fr.com/files/uploads/attachments/2012-Diversity-Fellowship-Application.pdf>.

Weil 1L Diversity Fellowship Program

Weil, Gotshal & Manges will offer a new diversity fellowship for law school students. The Weil 1L Diversity Fellowship Program supports the firm's overall commitment to diversity and is designed to increase the number of diverse attorneys who want to pursue careers at one of its US offices. The Weil 1L Fellow will receive a gift of a $10,000 non-renewable scholarship for his/her second year of law school. This award is contingent upon accepting an offer of summer employment at Weil. More information and an application are available at <http://www.weil.com/fellowship/>. Applications will be accepted until January 15, 2012.
